All Motorists Called To Register Again For Gas Rationing Cards

This registration of all motorists who will require the new rationing books for gasoline, will be held on the days of July 1, 2 and 3, and will probably be held at the Center school with Supt. Robert Taylor and a corps of teachers and volunteers in charge.

All car owners will receive an "A" book of coupons at this time. The six-page book contains eight coupons on each page, with the value of each coupon set tentatively at four gallons. Each page will be good for two months from the date of issue, July 18, and will expire on that date. The first page will not be good after Sept. 15, the second page after Nov. 15 and so on.

Cars must be provided with a $5 federal stamp in order to receive gas coupons. These may be obtained from the postoffice and the serial number will be included on the ration form.

Persons needing more than the allotted four gallons per coupon must fill out a four-page questionnaire which must be sworn to. They will be exhaustively investigated and must bring affidavits.

deVeer-Heldman

A very beautiful wedding was held on the evening of Saturday, June 13, in Yonkers, N. Y., when Elizabeth Grace Heldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Heldman, was married to Ensign Robert L. deVeer of this town, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Anton de Veer of New York. The ceremony was held in the Bryn Mawr Park Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Winfred P. Moody officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a fitted lace trimmed starched chignon gown with a long train and a veil which fell from a halo of chignon. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses and baby's breath. The bride's sister, Mrs. Donald F. Muller, her only attendant, wore a white lace gown and a lace picture hat and carried blue snap dragons and delphinium. The bride's mother wore soft green silk crepe and an orchid corsage. Lieutenant Commander J. A. de Veer was best man for his brother.

Mr. William Ventura sang several selections including "Because" and "Ave Maria." Ushers were Messrs. Raymond J. Skinner, Floyd Diefendorp, Arthur Jaques and Donald Muller.

A reception and dinner was held for about 150 relatives and friends at the renowned Abbey Inn overlooking the Hudson river. Ensign de Veer's sister, Mrs. F. H. Briemaster of Valley Vista Inn, and family were present from this town.

The bride is a graduate of Middlebury College and the groom a graduate of Mount Hermon school and Middlebury College. Ensign de Veer has been in training in naval aviation during the past year at Pensacola, Fla., and received his commission last week. After a wedding trip the couple will go to San Diego, Calif., where next month Ensign de Veer will have advanced specialized flight training before entering active service.

Our "Tom" Malbon Wins Poster Prize

Recently the Greenfield Tap and Die Corp. announced an invitation to its employees to enter a contest to create original drawings and slogans, to be used as war publicity in the plant. There were 375 entries and all were referred to a board of judges, consisting of Channing L. Bete, advertising expert, Steven G. Maniatty, artist, and Owen E. Ferguson. When the decisions were made, it was found that prizes would be awarded to a dozen competitors, but the first prize went to "Tom" Malbon, who with Fred Schotte, a fellow employee, collaborated with him. The slogan was "More taps to knock out the Japs." The design showed a hand clapping a "tap" and hitting the head of a shrieking Jap. Original and clever was the design and slogan which fitted it. Mr. and Mrs. Malbon are residing in Greenfield this summer. Last year they occupied one of the McRoberts cottages in Mountain Park.

The assessors of Greenfield have announced a tax rate for this year of $28, which is the same as that of 1941.

Dr. and Mrs. Jackson Leave Mount Hermon Service Of 24 Years

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson A. Jackson are retiring from a service of 24 years at Mount Hermon school and are leaving the campus to take up their home at Keuka Park, N. Y., in the lake region of central New York State. They came to Hermon in 1918 and have been diligent in their efforts to educate the many young men who have come to Hermon, year after year. Before Crossley was divided into sections they were in charge there and were indeed appreciated house parents to that large group of boys. Many friends at Hermon and in Northfield will miss Dr. and Mrs. Jackson, but they now wish them every joy and contentment in their new home to which they retire. The picture published here depicts both Dr. and Mrs. Jackson in the orange groves of Spurgeon Gage at Orlando, Florida, where they visited, their former friend who has also retired as a member of the Hermon faculty. Both Dr. and Mrs. Jackson were teachers in mathematics and in English and he has been singularly honored and acclaimed. He recently received his doctorate degree from Hillsdale college in Michigan. Following the death of Headmaster Speer and until the coming of Dr. Porter, Dr. Jackson was a member of the committee which directed the affairs of the school and several of his responsibilities were continued by the new Headmaster. As the Jacksons leave Hermon and Northfield, the Press joins with their friends in saying goodbye, a safe journey, and unites in the hope that they may turn this way often for a visit with familiar scenes and a greeting to those who cherish their acquaintances.

The marriage of Mary Bainbridge, eldest daughter of Mrs. Pattison and the late Rev. F. W. Pattison, to Dr. John Hamren Stapleton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stapleton of Regina, Canada, was solemnized in Canadian Memorial Church, Vancouver, British Columbia, the evening of May 29th, at 8:30, the Rev. A. J. MacLachlan of Fairview Baptist Church officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Frank W. Pattison, Jr., of Bremerton, Washington, wore an Elizabethan gown of satin and lace en train. Her wedding veil of tulle was caught in a coronet of orange blossoms used by her mother and grandmother. Her bouquet was a cascade of carnations.

The attendants were Miss Helen Vickers Pattison of Saskatoon, as maid of honor; Miss Meredith Ann Pattison of Linfield College, McMinnville, Oregon, and Miss Winnifred McLean of Vancouver, as bridesmaids. All wore gowns of Alpine Rose taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of shaded pink carnations. The flower girl, Miss Joanne MacLachlan, was in figured pale pink organza and carried a small basket of roses.

The groom was attended by Dr. Albert Wallace of Drivier, Saskatchewan. The ushers were Dr. Gordon Blott of Edmonton, and Dr. J. M. Cluff of Woodrow, Saskatchewan.

A small reception of intimate friends followed the ceremony. Dr. Stapleton has been accepted for Medical service with the R. C. A. F., and the couple will be leaving shortly for the East.

Many Friends Greet High School Seniors In Their Graduation

Town Hall was well filled last evening (Thursday) with the parents and friends of the senior class of the high school, who at the hands of Supt. Robert N. Taylor received their certificates of graduation. The most interesting program as printed in last week's Press was carried out in complete detail. The hall and stage was attractively decorated and the 16 boys and girls appeared well in their neat dress and manner.

The address was delivered by Dr. William E. Park, president of the Northfield schools, who exhorted the graduates to continue their studies and prepare themselves for their place in the coming days which lie ahead. Life is just beginning and the future is in their making. The awards and prizes to the members of the class were as follows:

Pro Merito Pins to Althea Churchill, Arlene Dunnell, Barbara Harris, Glen Murray, Irving Scott, Alice Stevens, and Esther Szeszowski; D. A. R. Certificate to Mary Holton; Massachusetts Sons of American Revolution Certificate to Mary Bolton; Reader's Digest subscription to Helen Ada Smith; Becker College Scholarship Key to Karlene Tyler; Alumni prizes: to freshmen, Helen Kowalski; to sophomores, Cyrus Bates.

The "Blackout" Everyone Cooperate Defense Workers Ready

Whether the "blackout" came Thursday evening, or will come Friday evening or Saturday evening, it will find every official of the Northfield Civilian Defense Committee ready for action and assuming their responsibility. Every unit of the organization will be prompt in responding and the "blackout" will be effective here. Again we repeat the regulations as was printed in last week's Press:

The signal will be when the street lights go out or when notified by an air warden. Immediately following the notification the first audible signal will be heard and all lights must remain out until the second audible signal is heard and the street lights are flashed on. The blackout ends with the second audible signal. Summer residents will cooperate with these regulations.

In behalf of those who daily, morning, noon and night, man the observation booth on the hotel grounds, Chief of Observation Richard D. Holton, desires to express his appreciation and now announces that all who have been faithful in the task are to receive proper identification cards. He also desires to convey some information contained in a letter from the first fighter command of the Ground Observer Section in Boston, Regional Civil Director aircraft warning, W. Gordon Means, and Captain Signal Corps officer in charge, L. G. Morrison, that all defense measures of observers have progressed and improved. The observers' responsibility is a task of promise in the defense of home and country and is fully appreciated.

Former Seminary Teacher In An Auto Accident

Friends of Miss Mary E. Underwood, a graduate of Northfield Seminary, 1924, and a teacher of biology there for five years, 1928-1933, will be saddened to learn that she was quite seriously injured in an automobile accident recently, and is still in the Penn Yan, N. Y. hospital. She sustained a broken left arm and cuts on the head with many bruises, and suffered shock when her automobile went out of her control and overturned in the ditch. Later reports indicate she is improving and will make a good recovery.

Later reports indicate she is improving and will make a good recovery.

Miss Underwood is director of religious education in a group of churches and rural schools in Yates county, N. Y., centering in Pann Yan.

Visitors and summer residents to Northfield must not bring any fireworks to set off during the July Fourth holiday, as all fireworks are prohibited in this state except the small caps for toy pistols. Prosecution may follow a violation of the order.

Miss Hazel Schooley, secretary to President Park of Northfield schools, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

Girls' Conference Opens Summer Season Large Attendance

The Girls' Conference began its sessions on the Seminary campus last Monday with the arrival of some 400 girls representative of the many schools and colleges in the northeast section. It was a beautiful day, more pleasing in weather conditions than those following during the week thus far. These young ladies have come to the conference to join with others in the quest for life's fullest meaning, to discover the place of Christ in their lives, to study the Bible frankly, to experience prayer and to apply the principles of Christ to the problems of the world today. The conference leaders and speakers include many prominent ministers and lay workers and a number of government officials, who have explained the work in which they carry on. There is a daily schedule of events, and a program pamphlet has been issued to guide the delegates. There are services, meetings, quiz sessions, teas and receptions, and enough is constantly bulletined to keep the groups in a constant activity. The conference will be in session until June 22.

Noticeable this year is the small number of automobiles, as owing to the gas situation, much of the traveling has been by train and bus. The conference is under the direction of the Northfield League and Mrs. Harper Sibley of Rochester, N. Y., is the president.

To Form Red Cross Motor Corps Here

A Red Cross Motor Corps is to be organized here as part of the Northfield Women's Civilian Defense work.

A Red Cross First Aid Certificate is essential for this course and will be offered to those who have not taken this course.

Those eligible to take this Red Cross Motor Corps training will be women between the ages of eighteen and fifty. They must have a Massachusetts driver's license, two years' experience in driving. They must be a car owner, or have one in the family. This car does not have to be available at all times.

This Motor Corps will be to serve Northfield and will not be subject to call in other communities.

Town Women Elect

In response to a call for a meeting of the women of the town to assemble in annual session to consider the care and control of Alexander hall, there was such a meeting held last Saturday in the hall with the chairman, Mrs. Willis Parker, presiding. After a short business session the following persons were chosen for the three year term, Mrs. Frank W. Pearsall, Mrs. Louis Abbey and Mrs. L. P. Goodspeed. ### County USO Drive Will Come This Month Canvass To Be Made

Plans have been almost completed to secure the county quota of $21,500 for the work of the United Service Organization, among the men of the service at home camps and in foreign fields. This is the second appeal and will be conducted throughout the nation. The county has been divided into five districts and Northfield is in district three with Stuart Winch of Turners Falls as chairman. The quota assigned to Northfield is $750 but the Press is without information as to whom will be in charge here. When the organization is set up in Northfield there will be a chairman in charge with an efficient committee to do the work of solicitation. F. Raymond Andrews of Greenfield is the county chairman and his staff includes Allen S. Ellsworth of Greenfield as secretary and Channing L. Bete in charge of publicity. The county divisions with the quotas assigned the towns are as follows:

District 1: Chester H. Willey and Walter O. Loomis, co-chairmen: Shelburne, $700; Buckland, $350; Ashfield, $325; Colrain, $325; Charlemont, $210; Heath, $150; Hawley, $50; Rowe, $50; and Monroe, $100.

The Old Homestead Presented In July

After due deliberation the Old Homestead Association of Swansey, N. H., now takes pleasure in announcing the fourth annual presentation of Denman Thompson's "The Old Homestead," in the Potash Bowl in Swansey Center in the Monadnock region of southern New Hampshire on July 17, 18, and 19, 1942, at 8:15 W. T.

There will be the same all-Swansey cast, to whom the play is a tradition, with Willard "Bill" Thompson as Uncle Josh. Sprague Drenan of Keene Teacher's College will direct the production and there will be the usual elaborate lighting equipment, original properties, scenery, costumes, and the well known oxen.

This year the proceeds of the play will be used not only for community and church purposes, but also for defense purposes.

To Show Photographs

At the annual meeting of the Windham county, Vermont, Historical Society to be held at Newfane, August 5, at 2 o'clock in the court house, there will be exhibited this year a collection of photographs taken of historical places throughout the county, in the various towns. Representatives from each community will explain the photos of their section. It will be an interesting gathering and all friends of historical places are invited to attend.

Warwick Old Home Day

Warwick will celebrate Old Home day on Saturday and Sunday, August 15 and 16. Events begin on Saturday noon with an afternoon of sports, followed by a dinner in the town hall. Dancing will hold sway in the evening. Sunday morning there will be church services with a union service at 3 o'clock for the community. As usual many from Northfield expect to attend.

Drive For Rubber Every Pound Needed Will You Cooperate

Over the radio and through the newspapers of the country, President Roosevelt appeals for the salvaging of all old and waste rubber, and under orders of Donald Nelson the work of salvaging will be exclusively undertaken.

All old rubber in waste materials is needed and residents are asked to search their homes from cellar to attic for the much wanted commodity. The Northfield Salvage Committee in a session on Monday decided to make plans to assist in the salvage and will immediately locate a large box in front of the Bookstore building and East Northfield Post Office where small articles may be deposited.

The rubber will be immediately sold and forwarded through a dealer and the money received will be devoted to some war relief organization.

There is an element in the drive which appeals. It is the first nation-wide effort and every citizen even agencies of the government, are urged to assist. Rubber is sorely needed and as the President has said, "Once the rubber is in, we will know what our supplies of used rubber are and we will make our plans accordingly. One thing you can be sure of—we are going to see to it that there is enough rubber to build the planes to bomb Tokyo and Berlin—enough rubber to build the tanks to crush the enemy wherever we may find him—enough rubber to win this war."

Arrangements will also be made for the placing of other boxes elsewhere in Northfield and will be announced. However, all waste may be left at any garage where the committee will arrange for its collection. The committee hopes that all this material will be freely contributed.

Rubber items wanted include tires, inner tubes, crepe rubber soles, boots and overshoes, hot water bottles, tennis shoes, rubber belting, rubber gloves, rubber sheeting, pads and matting, raincoats, rubber heels, bathing caps, jar rings, plumber's suction caps, sample tire sections, "and hundreds of other articles containing rubber."

If you have a quantity of this material, put it in a pasteboard box and phone any member of the committee, who will arrange for its collection.

Members of the committee are M. D. Birdsall, Ross L. Spencer, William Hoehn, Mrs. Walter Hyde, and others, but the above can be easily reached by phone.

For the convenience of those living in the Northfield section there has been erected a large pen at the Town Hall site, in which scrap metals may be thrown and also rubber. There will also be a pen at the East Northfield Bookstore building to accommodate more contributions than the present receptacle can hold. Just as soon as these bins are full they will be emptied and made ready for more.

Mr. Ross L. Spencer will also specialize in the collection of old rubber and is willing to make calls to gather up, if he is so requested. Now, let's all get to work and clean up on this special effort to get rubber and metals.

Church Band Awards

The wards for the Go to Church Band, directed by Miss Elizabeth Brailey, were announced by Mr. Dahl at the Children's day service in the Congregational Church last Sunday. Those who received the first term pin for perfect attendance were: Martha Chamberlin, Maria Lopez, Bobby Phelps, and Marilyn Whitney. Ralph Barrows, David Powell and Jack Powell received the second term pin, Naomi and Paul Chamberlin the third term pin; Arline Finch, Helen Howard, Gordon Leavis, Anne Livingston, and Eleanor Severance, the fourth pin, Petty Phelps the eighth pin, and Ruth Norton the ninth pin.

ble lesson was arranged by Mrs. W. H. Giebel while ill this spring, and to her a great deal of credit should go. It was in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. George Carr. ### EDITORIAL

PRESS SERVICE

"Hometown newspapers are guardians of Americanism and good government," said R. B. Howard of London, Ohio, president of the National Editorial Association, recently in an address to Kiwanis International Convention meeting. He spoke from experience and close contact with the newspaper field, and those whose knowledge of the facts in the newspaper field are of similar extent, will endorse Mr. Howard's statement. The community that has its own local newspaper is enriched in its publicity.

ADVERTISING

"Advertising, re-directed to render a maximum of public service, as well as to sell goods, is serving the nation today as valuably as in peacetime and should be protected and encouraged, nourished as zealously as the freedom of speech and religion. So stated Paul H. Willis of the Kraft Cheese Co. Advertising during the stress of war is encouraging morale, cooperation with government, and support of war activities, not to minimize the maintenance of the available instrument of public information, the newspaper. The local newspaper is the bulletin board of knowledge and information.

CAN NOT WIN

Oswald G. Villard recently made an address and in it he gives the following optimistic viewpoint, with which we all must agree. He said: "That Hitler can win this war is beyond the range of possibility. No man stained by such incredible crimes as Hitler can ever hope to win the affection and loyalty of even a majority of his own people. Dictatorships have their way and pass. Democracy goes on in the hearts of men!"

HOW LONG

In a free country, a man should have the right to join a labor union if he so desires, and he should have the right not to join if he so desires. Certainly no private organization should have the power to deny a man the right to work in a war effort, until that man can first pay it a cash tribute. How long the rank and file of American citizens will put up with such a condition remains to be seen.

Congregational Church

There will be no more sessions of the Sunday school until the first Sunday in September.

On Sunday at 11: the church will unite with the conference service in Sage Chapel. Preacher: President J. Edgar Park of Wheaton College.

Thursday evening at 7:30, the prayer meeting will be held at the church.

On Friday at 7 o'clock, the final program of the vacation church school will be held in the church, with an exhibition of the work done. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

On Saturday a picnic will be held for all in the church, Sunday school, and vacation church school on the church grounds, with games and supper. This takes the place of the June church family night.

The Unitarian Church

Next Sunday at 10:45 a. m., service of worship and sermon, topic: "The Plumb-line of God, and a Reed Shaken by the Wind." The Ancient Free and Accepted order of Masons, Harmony Lodge of Northfield, and the Order of the Eastern Star will attend this service in a body, celebrating the festival of Saint John which occurs on June 24. Rev. Arthur Heeb, minister, Mrs. L. Percy Goodspeed, choir leader and organist. In recognition of father's day Mrs. Betty Long will read "The Call", an original father's day poem, at this service. A cordial invitation to the community is extended.

Thursday at 9 a. m., Mr. Heeb will broadcast the morning worship-service over station WHAI. At the Children's Day service held last Sunday, Mrs. Carroll Miller lead in the responsive service, Winona Robinson read from an author, unknown, a tribute, "Jesus, An Appreciation." Edmund Morgan, representing the intermediate department of the church school, read Stevenson's "Road of the Loving Heart" and Mrs. Betty Long read an original and inspiring poem entitled, "Wild Flowers." At the close of the service potted begonias, the generous gift of Mr. Joseph Field, were given to the children to be taken home and cared for during the vacation, to be returned to the church in September when the school resumes its sessions.

Tuesday evening the church school and members of the parish gave a party and dance in honor of Miss Winona Robinson. Flowers were presented to her which were collected by members of the class in social expression and dancing.

On Monday evening 14 members of the choir sat down to a picnic dinner at Camp Wawona, the summer cabin of the Webster-Goodspeeds on Moore's pond, Warwick. Sterling silver spoons were presented to Miss Winona Robinson by Mrs. Joseph Morgan on behalf of the choir and friends. Among the guests were Joseph Morgan, Percy Goodspeed and Rev. Arthur Heeb.

Compton, assisted by Prof. Horace Morse and Mrs. Edgar Livingston; sixth to eighth grades, Mr. Edward C. Dahl. Mr. Fritz Kaufhold is instructor in carpentry, while Mrs. Ross Spencer is in charge of the other handwork projects, assisted by Mrs.

Marshall Lamphear and Miss Patty Long. All boys and girls in the community are invited to join in the school for the remaining sessions. The final program will be held on Friday evening, June 26, with a picnic on Saturday. Children who have not yet been to school are especially invited to attend the group in charge of Miss Hausman.

The Back Yard Gardener

By G. O. Oleson

I'm trying out soybeans for the first time in my garden. One of the big seed companies sent me three varieties to try, so I put in a row of each. As a matter of fact, I'm afraid I'm going to be swamped with cooking beans this coming fall and winter. I have snap beans and pole beans and soybeans.

They recommend planting the soybeans about June 1, so if you're at all interested you could still plant some, but I think I'll hurry along since these beans need about 90 days in order to develop to the stage where you can eat them green. That would be June 1 to September 1. You'll have to plan accordingly, depending on where you live in the state. And they probably will be ready for shelling as dry beans around the first of October.

The varieties I received are Giant Green, Chusel, and Willo-mi. Giant Green is about two weeks earlier than the others. In spite of the name the plants are somewhat smaller than the other two. The seeds are a bit larger, but they do not produce so high a total yield.

If you're planting them, be sure that your garden has plenty of pitrogen which you can supply of course with a regular garden fertilizer. Plant the seeds 3 inches apart, 1 inch deep in rows 2 feet apart.

Another thing you want to watch for is Mr. Rabbit and his family. In fact they say if there are any rabbits in the neighborhood the soybeans had better be protected by a fence.

In the meantime, don't forget those beetles and bugs and diseases that are in the garden.

During June you want to watch for flea beetles and blight on your tomatoes and eggplants; for cucumber beetles, flea beetles, wilt, and mosaic on your vine crops; aphids or lice and mildew on your peas; Mexican bean beetles; vab-aphids or lice and mildew on your peas; Mexican bean beetles; vab-aphids or lice and mildew on your peas; Mexican bean beetles; vab-

Now that list doesn't mean that you won't find certain ones of those insects on other plants, because you will occasionally. Some weeks ago I suggested rotenone as a general control for insects and copper as a general control for diseases in the vegetable garden. The use of rotenone sprays and dusts manufactured after April 13, 1942, is forbidden by the War Production Board on vegetable crops such as eggplant, vine crops, onions, peppers, and sweet corn, so here are a few substitutes for rotenone. Nicotine sprays and dusts will give satisfactory control of aphids or plant lice. These are the small green or black insects which have minute wings but do not fly.

Flea beetles are the little black beetles which jump when you touch the plant. Cucumber beetles are striped and fly. These two can be controlled with a spray or dust containing calcium arsenate.

Pyrethrum may also be substituted for rotenone on your vine crops for control of cabbage worms and for control of Mexican bean beetles. For corn borer you can use a dual fixed nicotine dust or a fixed nicotine spray.

Pioneer Valley Assn. Issues Map Of Area

A large transportation map showing all the bus, mail stage, and railroad service to sixty-one of the seventy cities and towns in Pioneer Valley has been prepared by the Pioneer Valley Association, and is ready for distribution. Weeks of work have gone into the preparation of this map, with an accompanying table of facilities, town by town. (An information clerk at one of the bus terminals said that it took him two years to assimilate all this information. But now it's all on the association's map that has been made to show that "the vacation cities and towns of Pioneer Valley can be quickly reached from New York, Washington, Boston, and other places without a car, and by direct routes or by easy connections.")
